

Chapter 6 and 7 Study Guide

Chapter 6

Bessemer process

Munn v. Illinois

Horizontal Integration

Thomas Edison

Interstate Commerce Act

Vertical Integration

Alexander Graham Bell

Andrew Carnegie

Monopoly

Transcontinental Railroads

John D. Rockefeller

Eugene V. Debs

- How did technological innovations fuel the U.S. industrial revolution?
- Describe the rise and fall of the labor movement in the late 1800's
- Which technological innovation of the late 19th century has the most impact on the U.S. today?
- List 3 things John D. Rockefeller did. Good or bad, be specific.
- List 3 things Andrew Carnegie did. Good or bad, be specific.
- List 3 things workers in the late 1800's did not have that we take for granted.
- Describe the difference between horizontal and vertical integration.

Chapter 7

Ellis Island

Melting Pot

Chinese Exclusion Act

Americanization Movement

Mass Transit

Jane Addams

Graft

Pendleton Civil Service Act

Angel Island

Nativism

Urbanization

Tenement

Social Gospel Movement

Political Machine

Boss Tweed

- What trends or events in other countries prompted people to move to the United States in the late 19th and early 20th century?
- What difficulties did many of the new immigrants face?
- Why did cities in the United States grow rapidly in the decades following the Civil War?
- What problems did this rapid growth pose for cities?
- What solutions to urban problems did the settlement-house movement propose?
- Why did machine politics become common in cities in the late 19th century?
- What government problems arose as a result of patronage?